

Erlend Emil Holmsen is a serial entrepreneur, skydiver, scuba diver, military officer, chairman, visionary and CEO of Noron AS.

He has high-level operational experience and work experience from USA, Central Europe and Scandinavia. Extensive network of clients and contacts. Established several businesses and companies at different locations and had over 100 employees.

Holmsen is President and board member in multiple companies, a Military Veteran with International NATO experience, management and leadership experience at all levels and he is DNV GL certified to conduct personality tests.